SALUTATORY

Parents, Teachers, Friends, and Schoolmates:

I hereby acknowledge the deep pleasure the graduating class of 1950 feels at your presence here tonight. I extend to everyone a hearty welcome and especially to the parents teachers, and Principal who have helped us so much during the past years.

Looking back into the past is a pleasurable recollection right now. As if it were a series of pictures in a picture book,we see ourselves in various stages. First, when we were beginning our lives our mothers gave us special attention. Then the opening of our school career when, frightened and helpless, we entered into a new life away from home and mother. And as the years passed we eagerly worked toward our goal to graduate. There were times, it is true, when our way was smooth and untroubled and when we rolled along with song and gaiety. Our teachers were at our side and urged us on with kind words and rewarded us when we accomplished some thing.

And now at last you have come here tonight to witness the happy climax of our school career. It is indeed an occasion for which we are thankful and for which we cannot express our deep appreciation and gratitude. To see your kind and friendly faces truly proves to us that our accomplishment has been worth while, that our labor and work have their reward--not only in grades but in the admiration and respect of our parents, neighbors, and schoolmates.

With our new beginning, our ways will go in different directions. Our paths will branch out from this community where we have been born and reared. But even so, we will always remember each other and our years at Micro High. It is true that most of us are looking to higher education; in fact, we hope never to stop learning whether in school or out. And no matter what career we may choose, going forth with courage and with the Bible as our guide, we can look toward the future with assurance and confidence.

And once more for the class of the halfway century mark, I wish you a hearty welcome to our commencement exerciese.

Thank you.

CLASS SONG

Through days of joy and years of preparation
At Micro High we're making friendships true;
Our hours are spent in great anticipation
Of dreams made real through will to dare and do.
Our motto we are never, never doubting--
"They Conquer Who Believe That They Can"--
The Class of nineteen fifty ever shouting
"O Senior Class, O Senior Class, we love you so!"

For our class flow'r the white rose we have chosen
Because it tells us we, too, should be pure,
Into our dreams its purity is woven--
Is woven there to ever more endure.
Our colors-green and white we'r proudly bearing
To make us want to keep on keeping on;
The Class of ninetten fifty never fearing--
O O Senior Class, O Senior Class, live on and on!

SONG TO JUNIORS

Tonight, Juniors, you have brought us pleasure,
This night, Juniors, wewill always treasure;
Tears and partings may make us forlorn,
But with your charms a new day is born--
So we'll say "Good-night, Juniors,
Though we're not beside you--
Good-night, Juniors, still our love will guide you!
Dreams enfold you, in our hearts we'll hold you
Good-night, Juniors, good-night."

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep, Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell, When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of time and place- The flood may bear me far,--I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

CLASS HISTORY

On October 6, 1938, seventy-two new faces looked up at Miss Annie Lou Ellis and Miss Thelma Williamson, our first grade teachers. We learned much during our first year at school under the direction of these excellent teachers.

The second year we lost three of our members leaving sixty-nine in our class. We were all eager to learn and accomplished many things that year with the aid of our teachers, Miss Janie Bellie Fitzgerald and Miss Annie Lou Ellis.

In the following years we completed our primary and grammar school education under the supervision of Mrs. Melba Woodruff, Miss Gladys Richardson, Miss Ruth Rowe, Miss Donnie Jones, Miss Thelma Adams, Miss Alma Ruffin, and Miss Clara Hill, who prepared us for the 8th grade. This was a tremendous year even though our class had decreased to forty-seven at the beginning of the term. During the 8th grade we had much fun preparing to enter High School. Our teacher, Miss Rachel Jones, was the basketball coach.

In the year 1946, we entered High School with a bang and started building on the foundation laid in grammar school. There were only thirty-six of us during our Freshman year. We learned much under the supervision of our home room teacher and principal, Mr. L. J. Worthington.

We were proud to be Sophomores but not quite as happy as we were to become Freshmen because one of our beloved classmates had died during the summer. This was Egbert Wellons, whom we all missed a great deal. We were under the supervision of Mrs. Sarah Batten. During our Sophomore year we heard some news that upset all of us--our Principal, Mr. L. J. Worthington, and all of our High School faculty, except Mrs. W. I. Holland, were leaving us to go to Princeton. This was very discouraging news, but we soon learned that the vacancy created by Mr. Worthington's resignation was to be filled by Mr. J. G. Feezor of West Edgecomb School. It did not take us very long to get acquainted with our new principal and after two years under his principalship, we have learned to love him dearly and we feel that he belongs to Micro.

In the year 1948-49 we finally became Juniors. With Eugene Braswell as President and Miss Pauline Calhoun as teacher, we had a good year. Our Junior-Play, "Busy As a Beaver", was very successful also our Junior-Senior Banquet at the Cherry Hotel in Wilson.

The year 1949-50 is here at last. After waiting twelve years we are glad to see it come. There are seventeen of us now (only nine of the orginal seventy-two). With Mrs. W. I. Holland as our advisor, this has been the most successful year of the twelve. We have behind us another successful play, "Don't Take My Penny", and another Junior-Senior Banquet. We are leaving Micro hoping for the greatest things in life--HAPPINESS AND SUCCESS.

Historians

SO ANCIENT

Gee, but I feel old today!
  Almost a million years
Would seem to weigh upon my head
  As graduation nears.
You see, that's 'cause I have a million
  Years of knowledge now;
I've learned what others have revealed--
   The When and Where and How.
Into this small head they've poured
  The facts of history;
From 'way back in primeval days
  To our time, wild and free.
Cavemen, warriors, soldiers, slaves,
  Have passed before my view,
All in a blaze of pageantry,
  In red and gold and blue.
I've lived their lives, I've walked their ways,
  To me they are so real,
That for them friendship and concern
  And sympathy I feel.
Rivers, valleys, mountain passes
  Yielded secrets, too,
And fiery-red volcanoes spoke
  With oceans sparkling blue.
I know the story of our earth--
  And let me say she's old!
No sweet girl graduate is she!
  A weird past she's unrolled.
I couldn't tell the things I've learned,
  The knowledge I've acquired;
No wonder that I'm in a whirl,
  And just a little tired.

And, gee, I feel so old today!
  More than a million years
Are sitting on my shoulders as Graduation nears.

Prophecy of Senior Class of 1950

This is Jimmy Fiddler bringing you the highlights of the week over station L. W. B. W. in Micro, N. C.

RALEIGH,N.C. The State College Wolfpack will meet Columbia University's Quint in Madison Square Garden tonight. The team and its coach, Bobbie Howes, will reside at the famous Chamrock Hotel and be the guest of Messrs. Linnwood Parker and Billie Carter, joint owners of the hotel.

AUSTIN,TEXAS Another friendly undertaker proves that shoveling can lead to amazing discoveries. While digging into the earth, Thel Brady struck it rich. Up came another oil well.

HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA Crooning star Eugene Braswell pulls down another million dollars this year. Braswell has signed a million dollar contract with Vaughn Monroe. Just a mere million.

NEW YORK CITY Sidney Medlin in School of Tomorrow has discovered a new way to solve the Pythagorean Theorem.

KINGMAN, ARIZONA New theory of agriculture being practiced in arid region Earl Brown proves that rice can be grown in desert soil.

NEWARK, N. J. Billy Woodard fights winning battle against Pure Oil Co. in big oil controversy. Woodard is a graduate of University of N. C. and a vetern in business.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON Logger Arby Creech like another fellow American leaves wood to take his place in Washington. Not in the role of president but on the bench of the great tribunal, The Supreme Court of the U. S. He will take his very efficient secretary, Miss Adell Medlin, with him.

And now Louella Parsons will take you to all parts of the world for the one thing that women love, not men, but gossip.

This is Louella Parsons bringing you World Gossip on the air.

SHANGHAI, CHINA Jean Batten thrills world with mission drive and peace developments in Chinese mission fields.

PARIS, FRANCE Nina Pittman, American school teacher on leave of absence to study French follows the (SIMPSON) tradition in France. Her engagement is announced to a French nobleman, Jean de Boucheau.

BALTIMORE, MD. N. C. nurse, Elsie Lavee Brown makes headlines at John Hopkins, marries world renown Austrain surgeon, Karl Lavasti.

NASHVILLE TENNESSEE N. C. has own Minnie Pearl. Sally Lane has just replaced Minnie Pearl in "The Grand 'Ole Opera". Howdy, folks I'm just as proud to be here--your cousin Minnie Pearl.

PINE LEVEL, N. C. Mrs. Sam Godwin, of Pine Level, N. C. who was chosen for "This Is Your Life" at Nandom by telephone number, was awarded a Hotpoint Electric Stove, Hotpoint Refrigerator, Bendix Washer, Deepfreeze, Complete Living Room Furnishings, Maid Service for 1 year and a 1960 Catillac Convertiable.

WITCHITA, KANSAS Mrs. Ralph Gurley, the former Janice Faye Pittman of Micre, N. C. made news today by saving the life of Crooner Bing Crosby. When she lifted him from his wrecked plane, carried him 2 miles to her automobile and got him to the doctor in time. Just what Bing will do for Mrs. Gurley is the big question but you may be sure Mrs. Gurley, that Bing will not forget.

AUGUSTA, MAINE Ice Skater, Edna Williams, took the biggest fall of her life today. She was performing for 30,000 fans, when suddenly she collapsed and before anyone could catch her "boom" she hit the ice.

RADIO CITY, N. Y. Vivian Smith, a well known woman Radio Commentator, doomed to be an old maid, so the world thought, announces her engagement to a poor farmer boy back down in good old North Carolina.

This completes my contract with L. W. B. W. I'll be vacationing in Sunny Burnuda for the next several weeks,and then who knows maybe another contract for world gossip.

VALEDICTORY

We realize this is a great moment in our lives as we stand at the threshold of graduation. Let us pause to reflect the past.

We are in this place tonight, not by chance, but by many hours of hard work which we'll never regret. Even then, it took cooperation from all.

But we must go back farther. Much of this credit is due to our forefathers who strove unceasingly for this land of opportunity. The teachers who unselfishly help to set our standards of education when other jobs offered more to them individually. Through these means we have been provided with fine schools.

A little more veiled but no less important are the sacrifaces made by our parents that we might attend school, and attend regularly in order to receive the greatest benefits. We are indeed grateful to them.

Now is reflected our teachers through these twelve years. How difficult it must have been at times to endure our childish and ignorant ways. Our hearts beat fast when we try to express our appreciation to them for their patient efforts.

But may we not linger too long in the past, for, after all, it is the future that beckons us on.

In looking ahead there are three mile posts to help make our lives successful.

First, we must strive to never overlook any opportunity that will help us to be better citizens and to enrich our lives. This means we must do our best in every task, large or small.

Second, to center our thoughts unselfishly on others, for we will meet many people less fortunate than we. We realize we must do this to make our lives richer and more useful.

Third, to continually strive for that which is right and good. We might paraphrase the portion of scripture "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things",(Phil 4:8). We may say "strive for these things". May we follow the example of our forefathers in striving for these things.

After reviewing the past and looking to the future,we come with humility and gratitude, for this moment in our lives only ends the beginning.

We believe that all the ideals and goals we have set can be reached as we remind ourselves of the great admonition given by Solomon "In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths".
